7/3/11

On 7/3/11, at 1:29 AM, uniformed officers observed a male on a bicycle at 23rd and Morris Streets. The offender observed the officers, adjusted his waistband, and the officers observed a bulge under his shirt. The offender rode off on the bicycle and the officers followed. The offender dropped his bicycle, ran north on Ringgold Street, drawing a firearm from his waistband as he ran. During the foot pursuit the offender fell and dropped the firearm. As the offender reached for his firearm, the officer pursuing him, discharged his firearm, striking the offender. The offender was transported to the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania for treatment. The offender's handgun, a .45 caliber pistol, loaded with fourteen rounds was recovered at the scene.
