4/4/11

On 4/4/11, at 3:14 PM, uniformed personnel responded to a Radio call for gunshots in the area of 1800 N. 59th Street. The officers observed a male who fit the description. The officers ordered the offender to stop. The offender fled west on Jefferson Street, holding his waistband. One officer went in foot pursuit and the other followed in the patrol car. The offender ran to the rear of the 900 block of N. 64th Street, and pointed a firearm at the officer. One officer discharged his weapon striking the offender. The offender fell to the ground and again pointed the firearm at the officer. The other officer observed the offender pointing a firearm at his partner and discharged his weapon, missing the offender. The offender was transported to the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania for treatment. A .22 caliber revolver, loaded with five live rounds and one spent cartridge, was recovered at the scene.
