PS# 13-32

5/29/13

On 5/29/13, at approximately 10:43 A.M., a uniformed officer responded to a Police Radio assignment of, "A person with a gun, male was the shooter from the shooting on Memorial Day", at Lawrence and York Streets. Upon arrival, the officer observed the offender, who fit the description provided by Police Radio, running from other marked police vehicles that were also arriving at the location. The officer exited his patrol vehicle and pursued the offender to the 2400 block of N. 4th Street. The offender ignored the officer's commands and produced a firearm, which he then pointed at the officer. The officer discharged his weapon, striking the offender. The offender threw his weapon into a vacant lot in the 2400 block of N. 4th Street, as he fell to the ground. The offender was transported to Temple University Hospital. The offender's 9MM firearm was recovered and found to be loaded with sixteen live rounds.
