11/14/11

On 11/14/11, at 12:15 PM, plainclothes personnel and the U.S. Marshal's Service went to the 2500 block of W. Oxford Avenue to serve an arrest warrant. An officer was guarding the rear of that location when he heard another officer yell "gun", and observed the offender run toward him armed with a firearm. The officer discharged his weapon, missing the offender. The offender was arrested at the scene and a .32 caliber revolver, loaded with four live rounds, was recovered.
