5/9/11

On 5/9/11, at 8:16 PM, uniformed officers responded to a radio call, "Person with a gun" in the 2100 block of Monmouth Street. The police pursued the offender on foot. The offender drew a .357 caliber revolver. At Monmouth and Coral Streets, the offender pointed his weapon at the officer in the vehicle; both officers discharged their weapons, striking the offender. The offender then ran to the 2000 block of Birch Street, and forcibly entered an occupied residence. Unaware that the offender had discarded his firearm on Coral Street, the officers entered the property and observed the offender sitting on a couch in the living room. The offender reached towards his waistband and the officers discharged their firearms, striking the male. Fire Rescue pronounced the offender at the scene. The suspect's weapon, .357 caliber revolver was recovered and was loaded with six live rounds was recovered at the scene.