PS#12-35

5/8/12

On 5/8/12, at approximately 2:33 A.M., officers were on-duty and in uniform, when they were stopped by an unidentified complainant who indicated that a male was armed with a handgun. The officers observed the offender walking in the 3400 block of Germantown Avenue, holding a pistol in his hand. Both officers exited their vehicle and identified themselves as police officers.

The offender pointed his firearm at the officers and they discharged their weapons, striking the offender. The offender fled on foot and was apprehended in the 1200 block of Russell Street. He was admitted to Temple University Hospital. The offender's firearm, a .380 caliber handgun, with no magazine and an empty chamber, was recovered from a sewer in the 1200 block of Russell Street.
