3/14/08

On 3/14/08, at approximately 2:55 A.M., an off-duty officer heard a loud noise outside his residence on Brous Avenue. He looked out his second floor bedroom window and observed an unknown male inside his Ford Crown Victoria, which was parked on the street. The officer told his wife to call 9-1-1 and then went outside armed with his privately owned pistol. As the officer exited his residence, the offender, who was standing outside the passenger side of the Crown Victoria, pointed a handgun at the officer and told the officer not to move. The officer discharged his weapon, missing the offender. The offender fled and was lost in the area.
