PS# 13-22

5/12/13

On 5/12/13, at approximately 9:56 P.M., uniformed officers in a marked patrol vehicle attempted to stop a male who was wanted for a domestic assault that occurred approximately thirty minutes prior. The offender fled on foot with both officers in pursuit. The officers observed the offender hiding underneath a parked vehicle in the 6000 block of Oxford Avenue and subsequently pulled the offender from under the vehicle. The offender fought with the officers and attempted to pull one of the officers' firearms from their holster. A second officer deployed his Electronic Control Weapon on the offender with no effect. Another officer utilized his ASP-Baton on the offender with no effect. The offender then attempted to disarm the officer who had deployed his Electronic Control Weapon on him and that officer discharged his weapon, striking the offender. The offender was transported to Albert Einstein Medical Center. No weapon was recovered.
