12/02/07

On 12/2/07, at approximately 2:04 A.M., uniformed officers responded to 17th and York Streets for gunshots in the area reported by another officer. The reporting officer had stopped several males in the 2300 block of N. 16th Street. One of the males stopped, then walked away and was stopped by another officer. This officer patted the offender down and felt a gun in his waistband area. The officer alerted other officers on the scene. The offender pulled a .45 caliber semi-automatic weapon from his waistband and a struggled ensued. During the struggle, the officer was able to draw his weapon and discharged his weapon, missing the offender. The offender dropped his weapon and was arrested after a brief foot pursuit.

The offender's .45-caliber semi-automatic weapon, loaded with ten live rounds, was recovered at the scene.
