PS# 16-01

1/07/16

On Thursday, January 7, 2016, at approximately 11:41 P.M., a uniformed officer in a marked police vehicle was traveling north in the 300 block of S. 60th Street, when he observed a male approaching his vehicle near the intersection of 60th and Spruce Streets. The male was armed with a firearm. Without warning, the offender discharged the firearm, striking the officer as he remained seated inside his police vehicle. The offender advanced to the driver's door of the police vehicle and leaned in through the shattered window, still discharging his firearm at the officer. The offender then fled on foot, but continued to discharge his weapon at the officer. The offender was apprehended by responding officers in the 5900 block of Delancey Street.

The officer was transported to Penn-Presbyterian Hospital where he was admitted.

The offender was transported to the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania for treatment.

The offender's firearm, a Glock, 9MM, semi-automatic pistol, which had been reported stolen, was recovered empty, with the slide locked to the rear, at the scene.

There were no other injuries as a result of this firearm discharge.

*** Information posted in the original summary reflects a preliminary understanding of what occurred at the time of the incident. This information is posted shortly after the incident and may be updated as the investigation leads to new information. The DA's Office is provided all the information from the PPD's investigation prior to their charging decision.