11/20/07

On 11/20/07, at approximately 1:52 P.M., plainclothes officers riding in an unmarked police vehicle observed the offender standing near a trash dumpster at 3rd Street and Indiana Avenue holding a handgun. One officer exited the unmarked vehicle, drew his weapon, and ordered the offender to drop the weapon. The offender fled on foot with officer in pursuit.

In the 200 block of W. Stella Street, the offender pointed the weapon at the officer, who then discharged his weapon, striking the offender. The offender threw his weapon and two small metal key cases to the ground and continued running to American Street and Indiana Avenue where he was apprehended.

The offender was transported to Temple University Hospital. The offender's weapon was determined to be a plastic weapon resembling a black, semi-automatic pistol. Both key cases contained numerous packets of heroin.
