PS# 08-71

12/17/08

On 12-17-08, at approximately 11:26 P.M., a uniformed officer was at 23rd and Tasker Streets when he observed the offender and another male exit the bar. They began to argue as they walked north on 23rd Street, turning east onto Cross Street. The second male called for the officer. As the officer approached the males, he overheard the offender say, "I am going to f**king shoot you." The officer yelled for the offender to, "Stop", several times. The offender then turned in the officer's direction while reaching into his waistband and the officer discharged his weapon, striking the offender. The offender fell to the ground, was transported to the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania, where he was pronounced. A black pellet gun was recovered at the scene.
