PS# 09-83

11/7/09

On 11/7/09, at approximately 12:08 P.M., uniformed officers attempted to stop a vehicle that was listed in stolen status at 1447 N. 75th Street. The operator of the stolen vehicle momentarily stopped in a driveway and the officers exited their patrol vehicle. The operator of the stolen vehicle drove forward contacting one of the officers, knocking him to the ground. The second officer discharged his firearm, striking the rear windshield of the offender's vehicle. The stolen vehicle drove from the scene and was recovered unoccupied in the 1300 block of Farrington Street moments later. The uninjured offender was apprehended in the 7600 block of Malvern Avenue.

No weapon was recovered.
