10/7/09

On 10/7/09, at approximately 2:40 P.M., detectives were in plainclothes in an unmarked vehicle, and observed a white Oldsmobile strike an occupied vehicle at 17th & Westmoreland Streets. The Oldsmobile, which was occupied by a black male and a small child, fled the scene of the accident and the detectives pursued the vehicle to the parking lot of the shopping center at Broad Street & Glenwood Avenue. The Oldsmobile stopped and the first detective exited the police vehicle and approached the rear of the offender's vehicle. The vehicle reversed in the detective's direction and the officer discharged her Glock 17 pistol one time at the vehicle. The Oldsmobile fled the scene and the detectives lost sight of the vehicle in the area of 16th & Cumberland Streets and the offender eluded apprehension.

No weapon was recovered.
