10/3/09

On 10/3/09, at approximately 9:34 P.M., uniformed officers and First Judicial Warrant Officers observed the offender and several other males at Chadwick and Cumberland Streets. As the officers exited their unmarked police vehicles, the offender, grabbing at his waistband, fled on foot to the 2400 block of N. Bancroft Street. The offender pulled a 9MM semi-automatic pistol from his waistband and turned towards the officers. One of the officers discharged his firearm, striking the offender. The offender was treated at Temple University Hospital. The offender's empty 9MM semi-automatic weapon was recovered at the scene.
