4/11/09

On 4/11/09, at approximately 1:29 P.M., the offender, while carrying a machete and walking his pit bull dog, attempted to strike a complainant with the machete at Belfield Avenue & Haines Street. A police officer observed the offender with the machete. The offender ran and the officer pursued him on foot. The offender ran into a residence in the 700 block of E. Price Street and locked the door. The offender subsequently fired a gunshot from inside the property and the scene was declared a "Barricade."

Additional officers responded and established front and rear containment. Negotiators also responded and attempted to negotiate with the offender to convince him to surrender. The offender fired several gunshots from inside the property. A police officer positioned in the rear driveway observed the offender at a kitchen window, pointing a handgun in the officer's direction. The officer discharged his weapon, missing the offender. The offender was subsequently apprehended without any injury. One machete with an overall length of twenty-two and one-half inches and one 9MM semi-automatic weapon, loaded with four live rounds, were recovered at the scene
