10/28/07

On 10/28/07, at approximately 2:03 A.M., uniformed officers were clearing a large crowd outside of a business in 3800 block Ludlow Street. The offender drew a 9MM weapon and began shooting in the direction of officers and civilians. An officer was struck in the right calf by a gunshot. Two officers discharged their weapons, striking the offender. The offender collapsed and tossed his weapon to the ground. The offender was transported to the University of Pennsylvania Hospital and subsequently pronounced. A 9MM semi-automatic handgun with an empty chamber was recovered at the scene.

As the crowd of people began to flee responding officers heard another gunshot coming from the northeast corner of 38th and Chestnut Streets and observed a second offender running east on Chestnut Street. This offender was apprehended at the scene. A 9MM handgun with sixteen live rounds was recovered from this offender.
