PS#12-48

7/4/12

On 7/4/12, at approximately 9:19 P.M., uniform officers observed a male shoot another male at 17th Street and JFK Boulevard. One of the officers pursued the offender, who pointed his firearm at the officer. The officer discharged his weapon striking the offender. The offender was admitted to Hahnemann University Hospital. The offender's firearm, a revolver loaded with two live rounds, and three fired cartridge casings, was recovered. It was learned that the offender had also shot another male moments earlier at 1600 Arch Street. Both complainants were admitted to Hahnemann University Hospital.