9/11/11

On 9/11/11, at 1:18 AM, uniformed officers responded to a radio call for a large fight in the 3200 block of Mercer Street. A 1996 green Ford Explorer, operated by the offender, drove onto the scene. The offender exited the vehicle, began arguing with several people, and drew a revolver. One officer drew his weapon and ordered the offender to drop his weapon. When the offender did not comply and continued to point the weapon, the officer discharged, striking the offender. The offender was transported to the Hahnemann University Hospital for treatment. The offender's weapon, a .357 revolver, loaded with four live rounds, was recovered at the scene.
