On 2/4/13, at approximately 11:31 P.M., two uniformed officers in a marked patrol vehicle observed a male walking westbound in the 500 block of Westmoreland Street. The officers observed what they described as a bulge in the front right pocket of the offender's sweatshirt. When the offender got to 6th Street and Glenwood Avenue, the officers told him to stop and show his hands. The offender stopped and turned toward the officers with a black object in his right hand. One of the officers discharged his weapon striking the offender causing him to fall to the ground. No weapon was recovered. The offender was transported to Temple University Hospital.
