4/29/10

On 4/29/10, at approximately 11:31 A.M., uniformed officers responded to a radio call for vandalism in progress at the 6600 block of Lincoln Drive. Upon arrival, the officers were met by a witness who stated that her husband was outside the residence in violation of a Protection From Abuse order. The officers observed the offender inside a vehicle parked nearby, and approached the male. The offender drove his vehicle into one of the police vehicles at the location. The offender then drove onto the sidewalk, contacting one of the officers. The offender drove towards the second officer, who discharged his weapon, striking the offender. The offender drove a short distance and struck several parked vehicles. Additional officers responded to the location and one of the officers deployed his Electronic Control Weapon (ECW) on the offender. The offender was apprehended and was treated at Albert Einstein Medical Center. No weapon was recovered.
