PS#14-37

09/08/14

On Monday, 9/08/14, at approximately 7:31 P.M., a uniformed sergeant, in a marked police vehicle, responded to a Police Radio assignment of a man with a gun, in the 300 block of N. Robinson Street. Upon his arrival, the sergeant observed a male fitting the provided description walking north on 62nd Street. The sergeant drove past the male, made a U-turn at 62nd and Callowhill Streets and exited his police vehicle; whereupon, he observed the offender armed with a gun in his right hand. The offender ran south on 62nd Street, with the sergeant and a second officer in foot pursuit. The offender then turned toward the sergeant with his hand tucked down by his waist. The sergeant discharged his weapon, missing the offender. The offender raised his hands in the air and surrendered to the officers. Police searched the immediate area and were unable to locate the firearm.

There were no reported injuries as a result of this incident.

No weapon was recovered.
