3/26/10

On 3/26/10, at approximately 3:12 A.M., an off-duty officer in plainclothes was walking in the 7100 block of Torresdale Avenue, when he encountered two males. The males got involved in a verbal and physical altercation with the officer. The officer, knocked to the ground by the offenders, drew his firearm and discharged, missing the offenders. Uniformed officers responded to the scene and secured the offenders. No weapon was recovered.
