PS#16-38

11/2/16

On Saturday, October 29, 2016, at approximately 10:21 P.M., uniformed police officers in a marked police vehicle, while driving north on Front Street approaching Gurney Street, observed a male discharging a firearm at a second male, who was running north in the 2900 block of N. Front Street. The officers stopped their vehicle and officer number one exited from the passenger side and discharged his firearm, missing the offender. Officer number two, while seated in the driver's seat of the patrol car, discharged his firearm through the windshield, missing the offender.

According to the officers, the offender then turned and discharged his firearm at them. Officer number one again discharged his firearm, missing the offender. The offender ran west on Tusculum Street and then north in the 3000 block of N. Waterloo Street, where the officers lost sight of him.

The male being fired upon by the offender reported being robbed by the offender.

No weapon has been recovered at this time.

There were no known injuries as a result of this incident.
