PS#12-25

3/26/12

On 3/26/12, at approximately 6:11 P.M., officers from the Narcotics Field Unit, arrived at the 6300 block of Edmund Street to purchase narcotics from a known offender. The officers observed the offender, along with a female, inside a Toyota Corolla. Two plainclothes officers identified themselves and told the offender to turn the vehicle engine off. The offender reversed his vehicle, striking an unmarked police vehicle. The offender placed the gear selector in drive and drove forward towards one of the officers. A second officer positioned on the driver's side of the Toyota, discharged his weapon through the driver's door window of the Toyota and struck the offender. The offender was admitted to Aria Hospital. Four packets of heroin were recovered from the offender. No weapon was recovered.
