1/6/09

On 1/6/09, at approximately 11:33 P.M., officers on duty and in uniform responded to a Police Radio assignment for a "Person with a weapon" in the 2900 block of Kip Street. Upon arrival, the victim informed the officers that the offender, a tenant at her residence, attempted to sexually assault her. The offender, who was intoxicated and lying on the couch, rose holding two large knives. The offender ignored both officers' warnings to drop the knives and the offender advanced towards the officers. One of the officers discharged his firearm, striking the offender. The offender dropped the knives and fell to the ground. The offender was arrested without further incident. The offender was transported to Temple University Hospital, where he was pronounced. Two eight inch kitchen knives were recovered at the scene.
