On November 13, 2018, at approximately 6:50 PM, 8th District Police Officers responded to a radio call for a "Person with a gun" in the 8700 block of Crispin Street. Upon arrival, they observed a male on the front porch of a residence, walking towards the walkway, in their direction, holding a firearm in his right hand. The officers heard the male arguing with someone. As the officers approached, they heard the male state, "I'm not going to jail, kill me. You're going to have to kill me!" The male then pointed his firearm at his own chest and head, then pointed the firearm in the direction of both officers. Several times the officers ordered him to drop his weapon. The male did not comply and stated, "Shoot me, shoot me, shoot me between the eyes!" During the encounter, the officers continually ordered the male to drop his weapon; however, the male again pointed his firearm in the direction of one of the officers. The officer then discharged his firearm, striking the male in the left thigh. The male fell to the ground and was subsequently placed in custody. The male was transported to the hospital, where he was treated for a gunshot wound in his left thigh, a broken femur and listed in stable condition.

The male's firearm, a Bersa .380 caliber was recovered at the scene. There were no other known injuries reported in connection with this incident.
