8/27/12

On 8/27/12, at approximately 12:09 A.M., plainclothes officers responded to a radio assignment, "Fight on the highway; person with a weapon", at "D" Street and Wyoming Avenue. Upon arrival at the location, the officers observed an offender stabbing another male, who was seated in a parked vehicle. The officers exited their vehicle and identified themselves as police officers. The offender moved toward the officers with knife in hand, and ignored warnings to drop the weapon. One of the officers discharged his 9mm pistol, striking the offender. Medical personnel pronounced the suspect at the scene. The offender's weapon, a three and a half inch knife, was recovered at the scene. The complainant sustained stab wounds to his face and neck and was treated at Albert Einstein Medical Center.
