PS#16-29

9/09/16

On Friday, September 9, 2016, at approximately 4:43 P.M., uniformed officers, in a marked police vehicle, responded to a Police Radio assignment of a "Person screaming" inside a property in the 200 block of Millick Street. Upon their arrival, a female opened the door of the property and informed the officers that a male had assaulted a second female inside the property. Simultaneously, the male emerged from the kitchen and began firing a weapon at the officers. One of the rounds fired by the offender struck the female at the door. In response, both officers discharged their weapons, striking the offender, as he retreated into the property.

A barricaded person was declared and the SWAT Unit was called to the scene. The offender was ultimately apprehended inside the property by SWAT officers.

The offender's firearm, a .380 caliber semi-automatic pistol, loaded with 1 live round, was recovered at the scene.

The offender and the female who was struck by the offender's gunfire were both transported to Penn-Presbyterian Hospital for treatment.

There were no other injuries as a result of this incident.
