PS#14-40

09/21/14

On Sunday, 9/21/14, at approximately 8:53 P.M., plainclothes officers, in an unmarked police vehicle, responded to a Police Radio assignment of a man with a gun, in the 1500 block of N. Frazier Street. Upon their arrival, the officers observed a male fitting the provided description. Two of the plainclothes officers exited the unmarked police vehicle, at which time the offender fled to the 1500 block of N. 57th Street, with the officers in foot pursuit. As they pursued the offender, the officers observed the offender pull a firearm from his waistband. At one point, the offender turned toward the officers with the firearm in hand. In response, both officers discharged their weapons, striking the offender.

The offender was transported to the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania for treatment.

There were no other injuries as a result of this incident.

The offender's firearm, a 9MM, semi-automatic pistol, with an extended magazine, loaded with twenty-one rounds, was recovered at the scene.
