3/24/07

On 3/24/07, at approximately 1:26 A.M., uniformed officers responded to a radio assignment, "Person with a gun" in the 200 block of W. Shawmont Street. Upon their arrival, a female stated that her husband was inside the residence, intoxicated and threatened to kill her. The officers knocked on the door and it opened. At this time, the offender came through the archway of the kitchen pointing a 12-gauge shotgun at the officers. One officer discharged her weapon, missing the offender. The offender threw the shotgun onto a couch and was apprehended after a brief struggle. A search warrant was executed and recovered from the house was the shotgun loaded with six live shells and various other firearms and ammunition.
