PS#15-30

6/22/15

On Monday, June 22, 2015, at approximately 1:05 A.M., uniformed officers in a marked police vehicle attempted to stop a male in 2400 block of north Colorado Street. As one of the officers exited the police vehicle, the male fled while holding his right hand at his front waistband area. The officer pursued the male on foot, southbound on Colorado Street, and observed the male ducking behind an unattended parked vehicle. The male then ran into an alley on the block with the officer still in foot pursuit. As the officer entered the alley, the male turned and pushed the pursuing officer, who then shoved the offender backward. The offender continued to flee into a vacant lot on the 2400 block of N. 17th Street, where he turned toward the officer with his right hand in his waistband. In response, the officer discharged his firearm, apparently missing the offender. The offender turned and then fled southbound on 17th Street. The pursuing officer lost sight of the offender in the area of 2400 N. 17th Street.

Area hospitals were checked for shooting victims with negative results.

There were no reported injuries as a result of this incident.
