5/31/16

On Tuesday, May 31, 2016, at approximately 1:12 PM, an off-duty officer, in civilian attire, arrived home at his residence. Upon entering the front door, the officer observed the living room television missing, the rear kitchen window open, and the rear kitchen door ajar. The officer heard voices coming from the basement. The officer went to the top of the basement steps and announced, "Police." A male appeared at the bottom of the steps and charged up the steps toward the officer with a dark metal object in his hand. In response, the officer discharged his weapon one time missing the offender. The offender fell down the steps crashing into the basement wall. The offender along with a second offender that was also in the basement fled out the rear basement door with the officer in foot pursuit. Upon exiting the rear basement door, the officer observed a green/blue van pull away from his property. The officer apprehended one offender in the 3200 block of Wellington Street. An off-duty detective apprehended the other offender near Brighton and Hawthorne Streets.

There were no reported injuries as a result of this police firearm discharge.

No weapon was recovered.

^{} Information posted in the original summary reflects a preliminary understanding of what occurred at the time of the incident. This information is posted shortly after the incident and may be updated as the investigation leads to new information. The DA's Office is provided all the information from the PPD's investigation prior to their charging decision.