11/8/11

On 11/8/11, at 12:22 AM, uniformed personnel observed a 2000 BMW, with a stolen license plate, being operated by the offender. The offender refused to stop his vehicle, and drove several blocks with the passenger front tire off of the rim. The offender entered a gated parking lot in the 700 block of Ramona Avenue. The officer drew his firearm and proceeded to the passenger side of the BMW. The offender exited the vehicle and refused commands to show his hands. When the offender finally removed his hands from waistband area, the officer observed a black object and discharged his firearm, striking the offender. The offender was transported to Temple University Hospital. A black case containing a cellular telephone was found on the offender's belt. No weapon was recovered from the offender. It was learned that the BMW was stolen from Front and Emily Streets approximately three hours earlier.
