8/9/07

On 8/9/07, at approximately 8:20 A.M., uniformed officers responded to a radio call for a "Man with a gun", at Watts Street and Girard Avenue. The officers observed the offender at the southwest corner of Watts Street and Girard Avenue. The officers approached the offender who then ran south on Watts Street and east on Cambridge Street. The officers pursued the offender on foot and he drew a weapon and pointed the weapon backward toward the officers as he ran. One officer discharged his weapon, missing the offender. The offender dropped his weapon, but continued to run east on Cambridge Street, south on 13th Street, and east on Poplar Street. Responding officers apprehended the offender in the rear of the 800 block of N. Camac Street. The offender's weapon, a 32-caliber revolver, loaded with five rounds, was recovered in the 1300 block of W. Cambridge Street.
