PS# 14-21

6/15/14

On Sunday, June 15, 2014, at approximately 3:16 PM, uniformed officers, in a marked police vehicle, heard gunshots in the area of 3200 N. Randolph Street. One of the officers ran through a nearby alley to investigate and observed two offenders discharging firearms. The officer drew his weapon and ordered the offenders to drop their firearms. The suspects did not comply and turned toward the officer with the firearms in their hands. In response, the officer discharged his weapon striking the offenders. The offenders ran through an alley. Responding officers apprehended one of the offenders at the corner of Fairhill Street and Allegheny Avenue. The second offender was apprehended inside a house in the 3200 block of N. Fairhill Street.

Both offenders were transported to Temple University Hospital for treatment.

A search and seizure warrant was obtained and one empty, 9MM semi-automatic pistol, was recovered from inside the house that the second offender had fled into.

There were no other injuries as a result of this incident.
