PS# 13-54

9/07/13

On Saturday, 9-07-13, at approximately 4:50 AM, plainclothes officers in an unmarked police vehicle observed a male on the highway, armed with a shotgun. The offender was standing on the corner of Cambria & Warnock Streets, with the shotgun down by his side. The officers exited their unmarked vehicle, approached the offender, and identified themselves as police officers. The offender fled on foot with the officers in foot pursuit to the 2900 block of Germantown Avenue. As the officers turned onto Germantown Avenue, they observed the offender on the opposite side of the street, with the shotgun pointed in their direction. The offender discharged the shotgun at the officers, who discharged their weapons in return, missing the offender. The offender again fled on foot, throwing the shotgun over a cemetery fence in the 2900 block of N. 9th Street. The offender was subsequently apprehended in the 2900 block of N. 9th Street by responding officers.

One Winchester 12 gauge shotgun, loaded with one live round, was recovered in the cemetery.
