10/24/09

On 10/24/09, at approximately 10:56 PM, uniformed officers on patrol in the 2600 block of N. 30th Street observed the offender firing a .38 caliber revolver at another male. The officers exited their vehicle and pursued the offender to the 2900 block of Oakdale Street, where the offender pointed his weapon at the pursuing officers. Both officers discharged their weapons, missing the male. The offender dropped his weapon and was apprehended in the 2600 block of N. 29th Street by responding officers. The offender's .38 caliber revolver loaded with two live rounds and two spent casings was recovered. The male who was being fired at by the offender was not injured and indicated that the offender was robbing him when the officers arrived. The offender was in possession of a cellular telephone that had been stolen from another robbery victim.