5/22/13

On 5/22/13, at approximately 8:46 P.M., uniformed officers in a marked patrol vehicle responded to a Police Radio assignment, "Person with a gun", at Devon and Locust Streets". Upon arrival, the officers observed the offender, along with several unidentified males at that location. Upon seeing the officers, the offender fled north on Devon Street, while grabbing at his waistband. The officers exited their vehicle and pursued the offender on foot. One of the officers observed the offender pull a firearm from his waistband. The offender turned his body toward the officer. The officer discharged his weapon, striking the suspect. The offender fell to the ground and dropped his firearm. The offender was pronounced at the scene by Fire Rescue personnel. The offender's .22 caliber firearm was recovered and found to be loaded with ten rounds.
