PS# 13-14

4/7/13

On 4/7/13, at approximately 8:11 P.M., uniformed officers were waved down by a cab driver on Frankford Avenue near Arrott Street. The cab driver told the officers that his customer had refused to pay his fare. The offender began walking away from the scene, south on Frankford Avenue. One officer exited the patrol vehicle and told the offender to stop, at which time the offender ran south on Frankford Avenue, east on Meadow Street, north on Paul Street, and back onto Frankford Avenue, where the cab driver got into a physical altercation with him. The offender broke free from the cab driver and ran west on Arrott Street with the officer in foot pursuit. The offender tripped and fell to the ground. As he began to get up from the ground, the offender drew a semi-automatic pistol from his waistband and pointed it in the officer's direction. The officer discharged his weapon and the weapon jammed. The officer ejected two live rounds and then discharged the weapon again, striking the offender. The offender dropped his weapon and collapsed to the ground. The offender was transported to Temple University Hospital where he was subsequently pronounced. The offender's weapon, a 9MM semi-automatic pistol loaded with fifteen 9MM rounds, was recovered at the scene.
