4/15/10

On 4/15/10, at approximately 2:10 AM, on-duty plainclothes officers were patrolling the 2700 block of N. 2nd Street when they observed the offender holding a .308 caliber rifle. Both officers exited their unmarked vehicle, identified themselves as police officers, and ordered the male to put the rifle down. The offender raised his rifle and pointed it in the direction of one of the officers. The officer discharged his firearm, missing the offender. A second offender at the same location discarded a .380 caliber semi-automatic pistol underneath a vehicle. Both offenders were arrested without further incident. The .308 caliber rifle, loaded with four live rounds and the .380 caliber semi-automatic weapon, loaded with seven live rounds, were recovered at the scene.
