5/21/11

On 5/21/11, at 9:51 AM, the complainant observed the victim walking away from a vehicle holding his stomach area and bleeding profusely. He also observed the offender riding away on a bicycle. The complainant got into his vehicle, called 911 and followed the offender to the 5800 block of N Mascher Street. Uniformed officers met the complainant on Mascher Street, where he pointed out the house that the offender fled into. Officers knocked on the door and were admitted by an elderly male, who indicated that there were males in his basement, including his son. The officers identified themselves and entered the basement when they received no response. The officers located the offender hiding in a corner of the basement holding a large kitchen knife in his hand.

The officers ordered the offender to drop the knife, but he refused. The offender then raised the knife over his head in a threatening manner. An officer utilized his Electronic Control Weapon and discharged it at the offender, who dropped to his knees, but was still holding the knife. The offender stood up and began waving the knife in the officers' direction. The offender pulled the prongs of the Electronic Control Weapon out of his chest and began to advance towards the officers, still waving the knife. The officers discharged their weapons, striking the offender. Fire Rescue pronounced him at the scene. A 13" kitchen knife was recovered in the basement. The victim who had suffered multiple stab wounds to his arms and chest, was pronounced in the 300 block of Tabor Avenue by Fire Rescue.
