3/25/07

On 3/25/07, at approximately 2:55 A.M. a uniformed officer responded to a police radio call for a "Person with a gun" at 19th and Cumberland Street. Upon his arrival, the officer observed a male who fit the description provided by Police Radio. The officer exited his vehicle and ordered the offender to show his hands. The offender fled on foot and while in the 1900 block of Glenwood Avenue, produced and pointed a weapon at the officer. In response, the officer discharged his weapon missing the offender. The offender dropped his weapon and continued to flee. The offender was later apprehended in the 2500 block of N. Garnet Street. The offender's 9 MM semi-automatic weapon loaded with one 9 MM cartridge was recovered at the scene.
