5/26/09

On 5/26/09, at approximately 10:28 P.M., plainclothes officers patrolling the area of 50th and Walton Streets due to several recent armed robberies, observed the offender, armed with a handgun, and three other males robbing an individual. The officers identified themselves and the armed offender fled on foot. One of the plainclothes officers chased the offender to the 5000 block of Catharine Street, and the officer discharged his firearm, missing the offender when the offender refused commands to drop the gun and show his hands. The offender was apprehended and his handgun, a "BB gun" resembling a semi-automatic pistol, was recovered at the scene.
