OIS# 18-08

On Wednesday, April 18, 2018, at approximately 3:45AM, two uniformed officers operating a marked police vehicle pursued a stolen Nissan Altima to the 3100 block of N. 33rd Street. The stolen vehicle crashed into parked vehicles. The officers exited their patrol vehicle and approached the stolen vehicle. The male operator of the stolen vehicle refused commands to stay in the vehicle and show his hands, and began exiting the vehicle and reaching for his waistband. Officer number one, positioned at the driver's side rear of the stolen vehicle, drew his firearm and discharged one round striking the driver's side rear door. The offender fled south on 33rd Street and was apprehended by both officers. The offender was uninjured. No firearm was recovered from the male or the vehicle.
