4/28/07

On 4/28/07, at approximately 2:50 A.M., uniformed officers observed the offender walking east on Wingohocking Street toward 4th Street. As the officers attempted to stop and investigate the offender for a curfew violation, he fled south onto 4th Street, with an officer in foot pursuit. The offender pulled a weapon from his waist area, turned, and pointed it in the officer's direction. The officer drew his weapon and discharged, striking the offender. The offender tossed the weapon under a parked unattended van. The offender was apprehended and transported to Temple University Hospital. A 9 MM semi-automatic handgun loaded with five live rounds was recovered from the scene.
