PS#12-94

12/8/12

On 12/8/12, at approximately 11:57 P.M., plainclothes officers responded to a radio call for a person with a gun in the 2200 block of W. Berks Street. The officers observed a male, who fit the description provided by Police Radio. The offender fled through an apartment complex and the officers pursued him. The offender turned and pointed a .25 caliber pistol at the officers. Two officers discharged their pistols at the offender and the offender discarded his firearm. He was apprehended without further incident.

A crime scene was subsequently located in the 2000 block of Montgomery Avenue. Six .25 caliber fired cartridge casings were recovered. An unloaded .25 caliber handgun was recovered at the scene.
