PS# 09-61

9/15/09

On 9/15/09, at approximately 8:36 P.M., uniformed officers attempted to stop a male for investigation who was operating a motorcycle in the area of "A" and Indiana Streets. The motorcycle operator fled to Amber and Hagert Streets and got off of the motorcycle on the sidewalk. One of the uniformed officers exited his patrol vehicle and walked towards the motorcycle. A second offender got onto the motorcycle and drove towards the officer. The officer discharged his firearm at this offender, striking him. The offender drove from the location and was apprehended at Hahnemann University Hospital where he was seeking treatment for his gunshot wound. The initial motorcycle operator was stopped in the 2100 block of Palethorpe Street. The motorcycle was recovered in a garage at 1900 Letterly Street.

No firearm was recovered.
