PS#11-02

1/1/11

On 1/1/11, at 1:17 AM an off duty police officer in plainclothes was in the 2400 block of Ridge Avenue with his girlfriend and her sister. They were outside a take-out restaurant, and the two sisters got into a physical altercation with several unknown males. The officer approached the males with his weapon in his right hand and one of the males got into a fighting stance with his hands inside his front coat pocket. The officer discharged two rounds from his weapon and the offender fled the scene and has not been identified at this time. No weapon was recovered at the scene.
