PS# 08-16

2/20/08

On Sunday, 2/20/08, at approximately 8:17 P.M., plainclothes officers observed two males robbing an unidentified male near Lindenwood and Arch Streets. The officers stopped the two offenders near 53rd and Ludlow Streets, at which time one of the offenders fired two rounds at the officers from a .38 caliber revolver. Four officers discharged their weapons, striking one of the offenders.

The offender struck by the police discharges was apprehended in the 5400 block of Chestnut Street and transported to the Hospital of the University of Pennsylvania. The second offender was apprehended at approximately 2:00 AM hiding in a rear yard on Ruby Street. A .38 caliber revolver, loaded with one live round and four fired cartridge casings, was recovered from this male.
